WES LAINE SURF CAMP 2025

Learn to surf or improve your surfing skills this summer at the Wes Laine Surf Camp. As a former top 10 World Professional Tour competitor, Wes will share his experience and knowledge of surfing with each participant. Assisted by a staff of CPR certified instructors and professional surfers, Wes will help you enjoy and appreciate the ocean while experiencing the thrill of surfing. Each morning you will be met by our program's experienced instructors at our surfing location in Virginia Beach. This is an excellent site with good waves, a sandy bottom, and a safe environment for teaching you how to surf. A Virginia Beach professional lifeguard will be on duty.

Each day you will be introduced to Ocean Safety and Surf Etiquette. Each morning will begin with light stretching and exercises. A professional surfer will meet and discuss his experiences surfing around the globe and competing in international surf events. A member of the Surfrider Foundation will also visit the camp each week to explain this organization's leading role in helping to preserve the ocean environment. In addition to meeting pro surfers and experts in the field, you will have the opportunity to learn first hand about such ocean science topics as waves and tides, marine biology, coastal ecology, and beach profiles.
